

The owner of this certificate has participated in a project supported by the European Solidarity Corps. This European Union programme enables young people to help build a more inclusive society and respond to societal and humanitarian challenges. It offers opportunities to develop valuable competences abroad or in the individuals' home country. The European Solidarity Corps also enables capacity-building for organisations involved in the programme.

from 16/03/2026 to 15/05/2026

About the project

ESC 4 EYG is part of the European Solidarity Corps and promotes the European Youth Goals through volunteer activities. The project engages young people in mobility actions to support positive change in Beja, foster inclusion and intercultural dialogue, and encourage active citizenship and solidarity while contributing to volunteers' personal and professional development.

The tasks of Asya Minel Akgün

The volunteers contributed to social inclusion and community development by supporting children from disadvantaged backgrounds through non-formal educational activities. They also organized workshops at the Senior University, promoting intergenerational learning, and coordinated an English Club at the local school. Through these activities, they developed communication, teamwork, adaptability, intercultural, and organizational competences while positively impacting the local community.

This certificate has been issued by Associação Check-In - Cooperação e Desenvolvimento.
